RE: In re: PG&E Corporation, Case No: 19-30088 DM

Dear Honorable Judge Montali:

I am a lay person. Please consider this letter to as a motion for an order to extend the April 16, 2020 deadline to file a rescission or damage claim in the case referenced above. Due to the current Covid19 viral pandemic disruption of how we Americans must alter our daily aspects of living, I placed my mail in bags for review at a later time to avoid my contamination and infection by the virus as suggested by health officials. It was only after reviewing my many of bags of mail did I find and read the notice of the bankruptcy claim this morning. I spoke with both the PG&E Prime Clerk's Office and the Northern District US Bankruptcy Court Office today and was informed to proceed with the claim, including an explanation for my late submission. Accordingly, today, on April 17, 2020, I am submitting my claim and supporting documents to Prime Clerk LLC. Please let me know if I must file a formal motion to obtain an extension.

I have been a long-time investor in the PG&E Corporation. In March 1988, I purchased 200 shares and enrolled in a dividend reinvestment plan until I sold my shares in November 2018. During this time, I stayed with the company through its first bankruptcy in April 2001. Unfortunately, due to the wildfires, the company is again in a bankruptcy situation. Consequently, I have lost a substantial amount of my investment. I am retired now and with the current negative and uncertain economic present and future, I respectfully request consideration for a late submission of my claim. My application, complete with the necessary documentation, will allow me to seek $3211.66 under the rescission and damages claim.

Thank you for your time and consideration,
